Parent E-Safety briefing

As part of our Anti-Bullying Week we will have the Safe Schools Community Police in to hold workshops for all age groups in e-safety. Between 3.30pm and 4.30pm they will host a briefing for parents about keeping your children safe online. We urge all parents who are able to attend to come to this information session which will help to keep your children safe while using the internet and social media. If you require any childcare while attending the meeting please contact Maypole Nursery on 01258 861228 who offer after school care. Thank you for your cooperation.

Pilgrimage

On Saturday 3rd June there will be a pilgrimage leaving Sturminster Newton at 2pm going along the trailway to Shillingstone Church Centre. At 4pm there will be music, singing, puppets, magicians and a BBQ. All families are invited to take part in this enjoyable family event.

Hot school lunches

This is just a reminder that school meals should be ordered on line by parents, using the individual login codes. We understand that there are times when parents are unable to do this and the office can order on these occasions. If you have mislaid the individual login codes, please ask Mrs Weeden or Mrs Sharpe in the office for a copy.

Half term holiday

We hope you all have a lovely half term holiday. The children are due back in school on Monday 5th June.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs J. Whitehouse-Sharpe
